TMCCI Membership Code of Ethics Definition.

A code of ethics is “a set of standards of conduct that guide decisions based on duties derived from core values “

Why have a code of ethics?

The management committee has developed this code of ethics to demonstrate an individual and group commitment to a high standard of ethical conduct for all Members of the Tamborine Mountain Chamber of Commerce & Industry Inc., and as a tool to:

- Align, communicate and inspire high standards of behaviour of the individual members of the Chamber of Commerce (TMCCI) to create a cohesive business community culture
- Provide guidelines for decision making
- Provide a benchmark for self evaluation
- Clarify the organisations mission, values and principles
- Enhance internal culture and external image
- Instill confidence and trust by members and the community.
- Outline disciplinary action
- Manage risk
- Spell out prohibited conduct.

The code of ethics will be used in conjunction with the constitution, guidelines from the Office of Fair Trading and the policies and procedures of the Chamber to ensure the highest quality outcomes of ethical decision making, recommendations and actions by the general membership of the Chamber.

Enforcement : Each General Member will sign the Code of Ethics when nominated as a member of the Chamber of Commerce with the clear understanding that failure to comply with the code may result in the management committee requesting resignation from their position of trust as a TMCCI general member.
